Handwritten musical score for 'The Rose Tree'. The score is written on three staves: a single treble staff at the top, and a grand staff (treble and bass) below it. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the single treble staff, starting with a whole note G4, followed by a half note A4, and then a half note B-flat4. The accompaniment is in the grand staff, starting with a whole note G3, followed by a half note A3, and then a half note B-flat3. The piece ends with a double bar line and repeat dots. The tempo marking 'p' (piano) is written above the grand staff.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system features a treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 3/4 time signature. It contains three measures of music, each starting with a quarter rest followed by a dotted quarter note. The notes are G#4, A4, and B4. The second system consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of three sharps and contains three measures of music, each starting with a quarter rest followed by a dotted quarter note. The notes are G#4, A4, and B4. The bass staff has a key signature of three sharps and contains three measures of music, each starting with a quarter rest followed by a dotted quarter note. The notes are G#3, A3, and B3. The score is written in a simple, clean style with no dynamics or articulation marks.
